

Architectural Plan

The architectural plan for the murder mystery event management platform will be implemented using a 3-tier architecture, consisting of a web user interface (presentation layer), PHP web application and webserver (application/logic layer), and database server back-end (data layer).